

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Thank you for your interest in submitting your work to American Cowboy magazine.

Here you will find our submission guidelines. Please note that AC will not return any submitted materials; therefore, do not send the only copy of your work.

AC is the cultural chronicler of the West, covering trailblazers and icons, history and heritage, travel and events, art and entertainment, food and fashion. Each issue contains these departments: Frontiers (photography), Cowboys, Travel, Gear, Features, and Know How. Please review our media kit for a schedule of upcoming issues and deadlines.

When submitting queries, include a well-developed synopsis of your story and how you intend to approach the topic, which issue and which department would offer the best placement for the story, and why it would appeal to our readers. Please also include writing/photography credentials and sample works. Queries should be made well before deadlines.

Due to the small-but-mighty nature of the AC staff, we cannot guarantee a response to each and every query. If we are interested in your idea, you will be contacted by the assigning editor. We will not accept queries via the phone.

AC does not accept previously published works.

Due to AC's rural reach, queries can be submitted through a postal service and should be typed and addressed as follows:

American Cowboy Magazine
Attn.: Submission Query
2520 55th St., suite 210
Boulder, CO 80301

If sending your query electronically, please make your query in the body of the text and not in an attachment. Send electronic queries here to AmericanCowboy@aimmedia.com
